1. Product Introduction of Flocking Children's book Printing

Children's book Printing with flocking makes the book looks stunning. Flocking is a process of dropping millions of miniature fibers called 'flock' on a wet pattern-glued surface. Described as simply as possible:

- *Offset printing process leaving blank the areas where flocking is to be applied
- *Wet glue is applied to the areas to be flocked
- *Flocking material (fibres) is dropped onto the glued surface areas

Flocking Children's book Printing differentiates your books. Welcome to email us for more details.
